Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 13 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry, quite bright, some rain and snow tonight.

Today:
Dry and cold with hazy sunshine but fading as high cloud increases. Cloud thickening and lowering in west later with some light snow reaching Upper Deeside towards evening. A cold day. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy. Occasional snow in the west very slowly edging north and east though falling as rain on lower ground and probably not reaching Buchan until the early hours. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Thursday:
Cloudy with further rain at times, still falling as snow on higher ground inland though the snow tending to become confined to hills as it peters out in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Dry start Friday, but rain, hill snow later and on Saturday morning, then drier, brighter in afternoon. Mainly dry on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.